Editor's Take

It's a New Beginning!

Make the New Year your new beginning. Recommit anew to being the very best that you can be. Recommit to being the very best human being: that's the beginning. Recommit to being the very best spouse: husband, wife. Recommit to being the very best daughter, son, nephew, niece. Recommit to being the very best uncle, aunty, in-law. Recommit to being the very best employer, employee. Recommit to being the very best citizen. Pay your tax, vote. Remember JFK's admonition: "...ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country." If we make all these recommitments we will individually and collectively become greater than we were in the old year. We will become wiser, we will become more, we will become the change that we want. Look at the sunny side of things no matter how dark the night might be. Pursue your dream, whatever it is, with steely resolve. Know that in the end, only imagination triumphs. Remember the wrong turns, and calls you made in the old year, resolve not to repeat them. Unclutter your mind with negative thoughts. Aspire for excellence. Wishing you all a New Year full of glory. Welcome New Year.

Keep A New Year Resolution

If you keep only one New Year resolution, let it be "Lord teach me how to say No." A million and one things will daily assail you, brush them aside, focus exclusively on the vital few that will drive you to excellence, greatness and immortality.

Name Three things you do that make you indispensable.

The Auburn Creed

I believe that this is a practical world and that I can count only on what I earn. Therefore, I believe in work, hard work.

I believe in education, which gives me the knowledge to work wisely and trains my mind and hands to work skillfully

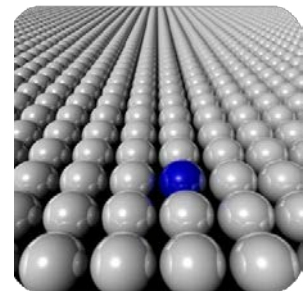

I believe in honesty and truthfulness, without which I cannot win the respect and confidence of my fellow men.

I believe in a sound mind, in a sound body and a spirit that is not afraid, and in clean sports that develop these qualities.

I believe in obedience to law because it protects the rights of all.

The rest of Auburn Creed Continues in the next issue of SWIFT

If You Must Win: Stand Out From The Crowd. Go Where They Aren't.

How many books did you read in 2014? Above 20 you are destined for greatness.
